

OPEN CALL FOR EXPERT QUALITY JOBS

Background

CECOP is the European Confederation of cooperatives active in industry and services. With members in 16 European countries, it represents around 43,000 cooperative enterprises employing over 1.3 million people. CECOP is the voice of its members, primarily in relation to European institutions and other European-level organisations. As well as advocating for and promoting cooperatives in industry and services, CECOP also plays a crucial role in producing knowledge about cooperatives in these sectors. CECOP represents democratically owned and managed enterprises that contribute to sustainable and inclusive growth by combining economic performance with social progress.

You can find more information about CECOP here: www.cecop.coop

About the call

CECOP is launching an open call for a consultant/external expert to assist the team with organising a Quality Jobs campaign. The consultancy service agreement will be signed in 2025. This consultancy service is funded by the European Union.

Scope of the work

The selected candidate will contribute to CECOP's Quality Jobs campaign, particularly by helping to produce four specific outcomes: a publication, a conference and a webinar on Quality Jobs, and a communication campaign. The campaign aims to give industrial and service cooperatives a voice in the context of the future EU Roadmap on Quality Jobs.

Tasks

The consultant/external expert will be responsible for the following tasks:

- Draft a publication on Quality Jobs
- Development of the communication campaign strategy and content
- Conceptualize the conference and webinar program

Skills and attributes

The applicant should satisfy the following criteria:

- Knowledge and experience with EU employment related policies

- Knowledge and experience with the cooperative movement
- Excellent written English
- Availability to work from July to December 2025

How to apply

Before 11 July 2025, send your CV, a short proposal of the proposed methodology and approach (1 page max), and two examples of previous work relevant to the scope of this consultancy (e.g. publications, reports, campaigns, toolkits, strategic documents) to cecop@cecop.coop.

Indicate the subject of your email as follows: Application for consultancy on Quality Jobs 2025.